THE COMMERCIAL APPEAL

Frederick, Md 21702

Dear Mr. Weisberg:

How are things? Enclosed is $25 for the book you sold me when I was at your house in May. Sorry it took so long.

So much has happened since I was out to see you. Of course you know the rifle results were inconclusive. I'm sure you're also aware of the many developments regarding Dr. Pepper and the questions raised about his credibility. I remember you told me when I was out there, "Pepper thinks he's Perry Mason. But he's not." I guess that's proving to be true.

I hope I may be able to pay another visit soon. I was never completely able to convince my editors of the value of your offer to copy the FBI Murkin and sanitation strike records. Regardless, if I can't get them to send me there, I hope to take a week off and do it on my own if your offer is still good. Let me know how things are going and if you have any news. You can call me toll free at 1 800 444-6397, ext 2545.

Sincerely,

Marc Perrusquia
